TUESDAY, DECEMBER 23, 1766.

BOSTON, NOVEMBER 10.

The following Letters have lately been received from our Agent in London, and were laſt Week communicated to the General Court, now ſitting here, viz.

SIR, London, Auguſt 6, 1766.

"SINCE my laſt I have received a few Lines from Lord Dartmouth, in which he ſays, I am ſorry to hear that the Aſſembly of Boſton has refuſed to make the Indemnification recommended by Parliament. New-York has complied.

Had you been here to be fully apprized of the long Debate in the Houſe, your Friends ſupported, to obtain the Word Recommend, as a Term entirely conſiſtent with your Liberty, it muſt have left a grateful Impreſſion on your Minds, which your Addreſs preſented to his Majeſty by the Duke of Richmond is ſo full of, both to King and Parliament, that I can hardly believe you ſhould come to ſuch a Reſolution. If the Report be a Slander on the Province, I ſhall be glad if you will put it in my Power to refute it, as I am ambitious your Aſſembly, who I have the Honour to be employed by, ſhould ſtand high in the Eſteem of the King, Miniſtry, and Parliament, as well as in the Eſteem of the real Friends of America, which ſuch a Refuſal will abate.

SIR, Your faithful and obedient Servant,
DENNYS DE BERDT."

SIR, London, September 19, 1766.

"SINCE my laſt to you I have received ſeveral Letters from your Friends, in anſwer to your Vote of Thanks, which I herewith incloſe, and by the univerſal Approbation it has met, proves it a very well judged Meaſure, and Lord Cheſterfield, and the old Speaker Onſlow, both whoſe Hearts were warm in your Cauſe, were very particularly pleaſed, and the latter deſired me to aſſure your Houſe he eſteemed it the higheſt Honour could be conferred on him.

I have Yeſterday waited on Lord Shelburne, our new Secretary of State, and his Lordſhip expreſſed himſelf to me in ſuch Terms as gave me great Satisfaction, and deſired me to aſſure the Houſe, he had the higheſt Regard for America, wiſh'd their Proſperity, and would make it his Care to promote it, that you might be perfectly eaſy, about the Enjoyment of your juſt Rights and Privileges under the preſent Adminiſtration. But on the other Hand, the Dignity of Government muſt be maintained, as well as a due Regard to the Adminiſtration here, which I aſſured him was their real Diſpoſition, as was manifeſt by the Tenor of all their Addreſſes; two of which came through my Hands, (Yours and from the lower Counties of Penſylvania.)

He deſired you would finiſh the affair of the Damages ſuſtained, becauſe it gave Occaſion to your and the Enemies of the Adminiſtration, to upbraid them for the gentle Meaſures they adopted; on the other Hand, he had alſo wrote to every Governor on the Continent, to behave with Temper and Moderation, to the ſeveral Provinces over which they preſide; and he had wrote to your Governor in particular, to purſue healing Meaſures; and was ſo condeſcending to offer ſhewing me Copies of his Letter the next Time I waited on him, and added, that whatever new Governors were appointed for the future, Care would be taken to ſend ſuch Men as ſhould act upon the moſt generous Principles, and thereby ſecure the Affection of the People.

This his Lordſhip declared with a generous Frankneſs and Openneſs, which loſes a great deal of its native Beauty by the imperfect Repreſentation of

SIR, Your obedient humble Servant,
DENNYS DE BERDT."

NEW-YORK, November 13.

The SPEECH of his Excellency Sir HENRY MOORE, Baronet, Captain-General and Governor in Chief in and over the Province of New-York, and the Territories depending thereon in America, Vice-Admiral, and Chancellor of the ſame: To the Council and General Aſſembly of the ſaid Province.

Gentlemen of the Council, and
Gentlemen of the General Aſſembly,

THE Meeting of the General Aſſembly, has been delay'd beyond the uſual Time, as I was in daily Expectation of receiving his Majeſty's Commands, in Regard to an humble Repreſentation made of the Diſtreſs in which this Colony would ſhortly be involved, through the Want of a ſufficient Paper Currency. And it is with the greateſt Satisfaction, that I can open this Seſſion with a freſh Inſtance of his Majeſty's paternal Regard and Protection extended to this Province, who has been graciouſly pleaſed, under certain Reſtrictions, to revoke that Inſtruction by which the Commander in Chief here, was precluded from giving his Aſſent to any Act which ſhould be framed for ſtriking Bills of Credit, and iſſuing the ſame in Lieu of Money. The Royal Attention ſo conſtantly paid to the Sufferings of the People, and the late Examples given of it, are ſuch ſignal Inſtances of his Majeſty's Condeſcenſion and Tenderneſs for their Intereſts, as cannot fail of exciting the warmeſt Sentiments of Gratitude in the Minds of every Subject, and be productive of the higheſt Returns of Duty and Submiſſion.

Gentlemen of the General Aſſembly,

The great Expence in which this Colony has been engaged for ſome Time paſt, and the Difficulties which ſtill ſubſiſts in Regard to Limits between this and the neighbouring Provinces of Maſſachuſetts, and the Jerſeys, have engaged me to aſcertain as ſoon as poſſible, the Line which his Majeſty has been pleaſed to fix by his Royal Proclamation for the Boundary between this Province and Quebec. And after the neceſſary Supplies of Government are raiſed, I muſt recommend it to the General Aſſembly to make Proviſion for the farther opening and continuing this Line, in which I flatter myſelf that the Province of Quebec, equally intereſted in it, will readily contribute; as a mutual Benefit will be derived from it. I muſt at the ſame Time earneſtly requeſt, that proper Meaſures may be taken to ſettle the Boundaries between the different Counties in this Province, and fix them by Authority: The Want of a due Attention to ſo neceſſary a Service, has already given riſe to many Inconveniencies, and the continual Scenes of Litigation and Diſorder, occaſioned by vague and undetermin'd Limits, call for Redreſs in the ſtrongeſt Terms.

Gentlemen of the Council, and
Gentlemen of the General Aſſembly,

I ſhall, during the Courſe of your Seſſion, take Opportunities of laying before you ſome Matters which have occur'd to me, during the late Tour I made; and recommending to your Conſideration whatever may be conducive to the Public Service; as I am fully perſuaded that the Legiſlative Bodies will chearfully co-operate with me in whatever can be propoſed for his Majeſty's Service, and the Good of their Country.

H. MOORE.

New-York, 10th November, 1766.

To his Excellency Sir HENRY MOORE, Baronet, Captain General and Governor in Chief in and over the Colony of New-York, and the Territories depending thereon in America, Chancellor and Vice Admiral of the ſame.

The humble Addreſs of the General Aſſembly of the ſaid Colony.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

WE his Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects, the General Aſſembly of the Colony of New-York, return your Excellency our moſt hearty Thanks for your Speech.

The Satisfaction your Excellency expreſſes in being permitted to relieve the Diſtreſs this Colony is fallen into thro' the Want of a Medium of Trade, can't but be extremely agreeable to us, as it affords a further Proof of your Attention to, and Concern for our Intereſts.

We are deeply ſenſible of his Majeſty's paternal Care and tender Regard for all his Subjects; and we are confident we ſhall ever be ready to make ſuch Returns of Duty and Submiſſion, as may be expected from the moſt loyal Subjects, to the beſt of Sovereigns.

Had your Excellency been permitted by the Inſtructions you have received, to have paſſed a Bill for the iſſuing of Paper Money in the uſual Manner, we ſhould have been ſo cautious in the Exerciſe of that Power, That no Perſon either at Home or abroad, would have been in the leaſt Danger of being injured in his Property; and the publick Credit of this Colony would have been, as it ever has been the Object of our peculiar Care and Attention: But ſince we fear that no Bill for that Purpoſe can be paſſed without a ſuſpending Clauſe, we are determined to bear our Diſtreſſes as well as we are able; except your Excellency will be pleaſed, conſidering the preſſing Neceſſities we lay under, to paſs a Bill without ſuch an unuſual Clauſe.

Your Excellency's Care to ſettle the Boundaries between this Colony and Quebec, will probably prevent many miſchievous Conſequences which might otherwiſe ariſe from the Neglect of a Thing of that Importance. And for the like Reaſons we ſhall be ready to contribute all the Aſſiſtance in our Power, to enable your Excellency to ſettle at leaſt a temporary Line of Juriſdiction between this Colony and the Province of the Maſſachuſetts Bay.

The Settlement of the Boundaries of the ſeveral Counties in this Colony, where they are in any Manner uncertain, we look upon as an Object deſerving the moſt ſerious Attention of the Legiſlature, and abſolutely neceſſary to Peace, Order, and the due Execution of the Powers of Government. We ſhall pay a due Regard therefore to what your Excellency recommends on that Subject, as well as to whatever elſe you ſhall think proper to lay before us during the Courſe of this Seſſion, in which we ſhall be ambitious of demonſtrating that your Excellency has done us no more than ſtrict Juſtice, in ſuppoſing that we will chearfully co-operate with you in whatever can be propoſed for his Majeſty's Service, and the Good of this Country.

By Order of the General Aſſembly,
W. NICOLL, Speaker.

Aſſembly Chamber, in the Out-Ward of the City of New-York, the 13*th of* November, 1766.

To his Excellency Sir HENRY MOORE, Baronet, Captain General and Governor in Chief in and over the Province of New-York, and the Territories depending thereon in America, Chancellor and Vice-Admiral of the ſame.

The Humble ADDRESS of the Council of the Province of New-York.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

WE his Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects the Council of this Province, return your Excellency our hearty Thanks for your Speech, at the Opening of this Seſſion; and for the Communication of his Majeſty's gracious Intentions towards the People of this Colony, in altering the Inſtruction relative to the Emiſſion of a Paper Currency.

Senſible of the great Importance of having the Limits of the Province well eſtabliſhed; we have great Satisfaction in the early Meaſures that your Excellency has taken to aſcertain the Line, which his Majeſty has been pleaſed, by his Royal Proclamation, to fix as the Boundary between this Colony and Quebec; and hope your Excellency's Recommendation to provide for the further opening and continuing that Line, will have the deſired Effect.

We are alſo ſenſible of the Neceſſity of a Settlement of the Boundaries between ſome of the Counties; the Want of which hath already given riſe to Litigation and Diſorder, which muſt continue till proper Meaſures are taken to adjuſt the ſame.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Excellency, that we ſhall be ready on all Occaſions to aſſiſt in every Meaſure that may be conducive to his Majeſty's Service, and the Good of this Colony.

By Order of the Council,
DANIEL HORSMANDEN, Speaker.

Council-Chamber, New-York,
14th November, 1766.

His Excellency's ANSWER.

Gentlemen of the Council,

I Return you my hearty Thanks for this Addreſs, and ſhall always look upon it as my Duty to promote, as far as lays in my Power, whatever may be of Advantage to the Intereſts of this Country.

Fort-George, 14th November, 1766.

Extract from the JOURNAL of the General Aſſembly of the Colony of NEW-YORK.

Die Martis 9 hr. A. M. the 18*th November*, 1766.

A Meſſage from his Excellency the Governor, by Mr. Banyar, Dep. Sec'ry. which being read, is in the Words following, viz.

Gentlemen of the General Aſſembly,

IN Conſequence of a Report made to the Lords Commiſſioners for Trade and Plantations, of the Act paſſed in the laſt Seſſion of Aſſembly, for providing Barracks, Fuel, &c. for his Majeſty's Troops quartered in this City, and my Letter to the Secretary of State on the ſame Occaſion, I have had the Honour of the following Letter from the Earl of Shelburne.

WHITEHALL, 9*th Auguſt*, 1766.

SIR,

I Took the firſt Opportunity after his Majeſty had been moſt graciouſly pleaſed to intruſt me with the Seals of the Southern Department, to lay before him your Letter of the 10th of June, giving an Account of the general Satisfaction expreſſed by all Ranks and Degrees of People on the Repeal of the Stamp-Act; and likewiſe your Reaſons for aſſenting to a Bill for providing Barracks, Firewood, Candles, Bedding, and Utenſils for the Kitchen, for the King's Troops, as demanded, notwithſtanding the Articles of Salt, Vinegar, Cyder, and Beer, be not included, under a Pretence that they are not provided for Troops lodged in Barracks in Europe.

I have his Majeſty's Commands to acquaint you, of the Satisfaction he feels in the Happineſs of his Subjects, ariſing from the tender Care and Conſideration of his Parliament: But I am ordered to ſignify to you at the ſame Time, That as it is the indiſpenſable Duty of his Subjects in America, to obey the Acts of the Legiſlature of Great-Britain, the King both expects and requires a due and chearful Obedience to the ſame; and it cannot be doubted that his Majeſty's Province of New-York, after the Lenity of Great-Britain ſo recently extended to America, will not fail duly to carry into Execution the Act of Parliament paſſed laſt Seſſion for quartering his Majeſty's Troops, in the full Extent and Meaning of the Act, without referring to the Uſage of other Parts of his Majeſty's Dominions, where the Legiſlature has thought fit to preſcribe different Regulations; and which cannot be altered any more than in North-America, except upon a reſpectful and well grounded Repreſentation of the Hardſhip or Inconvenience. Theſe Conſiderations I am convinced, muſt of themſelves have ſo much Weight with the Aſſembly of New-York, not only in the preſent Conjuncture, when it is natural to ſuppoſe the Minds of Men retain ſenſible Impreſſions of what has lately paſſed, but upon other Occaſions which may call for a ready Obedience, that I cannot think it neceſſary for me to enlarge farther upon their Importance. I muſt only, Sir, in general add, that I hope and believe, that a very little Time, together with that temperate Adminiſtration of Government which your Regard to the People under it muſt make you naturally incline to, and that Firmneſs which your Duty to the King equally requires, will allay whatever remains of thoſe Heats which have ſo unhappily for America prevailed, and which if continued, muſt prove of the moſt fatal Conſequence to whatever Province they are ſuffered in. I am therefore perſuaded that the Aſſembly will loſe no Occaſion that offers, of convincing his Majeſty, that the People of New-York, will yield to no other Part of his Subjects in Duty, Loyalty, and Obedience to ſuch Laws as the King and Parliament have thought proper to enact for their Benefit and Protection.

Signed, SHELBURNE.

I flatter myſelf, that on due Conſideration of this Letter, no Difficulties can poſſibly ariſe, or the leaſt Objection to be made to the Proviſion for the Troops as required by Act of Parliament.

H. MOORE.

Fort-George, 17th Nov. 1766.

Ordered, That the ſaid Meſſage be referred to the Conſideration of the Committee, to whom his Excellency's Speech is committed.

LONDON, August 1.

LAST night the body of that poor politician ANTISEJANUS was interred in the criminal vault in St. Sepulchre's church yard, the body having been conveyed the night before to Miss Fanny's lodgings in Cock-lane. Between nine and ten the procession began to move (passing through the lane, to the south door of the Church, upon the dirty pavement, and lined on each side with a party of Smithfield cattle-drivers) in the following order;

Carmen and Porters.
Forestallers.
Turkey-drivers and Hog-drivers.
One Footman.
Two Chairmen.
Apothecary.
Literary Opponents.
Printers.
Catherine-street Booksellers.
Stationers.
Devils.

The BODY.

Covered with a black flag of sedition, trimmed with Cock's Comb, adorned with sixteen titles of the Perils of Poetry, under an umbrella born by four Excisemen; the pall or flag supported by six weeping creditors.

The Monthly Reviewers, with their Rods of Office.

CHIEF MOURNER,

Supporter, Mr. Geo. Cider Act, in a long h. cloak studded with Stamp Duties.

JEMMY TWITCHER, in a yellow robe marked with the No. 45.

Supporter, Mr. Bloomsbury, in French silk.

Assistants to the Chief Mourner.

Tall Boy and double faced Cerberus.

Ten Of Jemmy Twitcher's Hacketts in yellow,

Ten Covent Garden Pimps and five Bawds, in pea-green.

Jack Ketch.
One Salt-box.
Marrow-bones and Cleavers.
Buckhorse,
Beating the Black Joke on his Chin.
The
Man with the change of voices.
The tall Woman in White.
Fielding's Gang with Links.
Chimney-sweepers with white Staves.

At the entrance of the church, the Ordinary of Newgate, attended with prisoners in chains, received the Body, falling into the procession next before Catherine-street Booksellers, and so proceeded into the church, where the body was placed on gin kegs, the feet towards the altar; the service was read by the Ordinary of Newgate; the mourners and supporters seated: The burial service finished, Buckhorse declared his stile as follows:

Thus is this kingdom happily released from the pen of dullness and ANTISEJANUS, a cantab servitur, a prophane priest, a wretched party-writer, pander and poet.

Since which a body of Americans have generously contributed to raise a monument to his memory, with the following

EPITAPH.

Here continueth to rot
The body of Anti-Sejanus;
Who with an unconquerable impudence, and inimitable
irregularity of life,
persisted,
In spite of virtue, truth, and honour,
In the practice of every abominable vice;
Nor was he more singular in the undeviating depravity of his manners, than in his publick recommendation of illiberate men.
He was the only man of his time who could Applaud the bad without the mask of Honesty;
And, having daily deserved the cudgel for
What he did,
Was at last cudgeled by those he vowed to cudgel.
O unworthy reader!
Think not his life a lesson to mankind!
Integrity smiled on his execrable politicks,
To show
To after ages how base is that wretch that can Prostitute his No-abilities to disturb the Peace of his COUNTRY.

From enclosing of Commons, from enlarging of Farms, and from all the causes of the dearness of Provisions,
Good Lord, &c.

From heavy Taxes and Beggary, from Excise Laws and Slavery, and from Popery and all perversion of thy Word,
Good Lord, &c.

From the pernicious votes of venal Boroughs, and from all Rioting, Drunkenness, and Septennial Perjury,
Good Lord, &c.

From long Parliaments, from Placemen and Pensioners, from Bribery and Corruption, and from all Prostitution of Conscience, Good Lord, &c.

From Pride and Avarice, from Hypocrisy and all false Patriotism, Good Lord, &c.

From the Promotion and Power of evil Men, from Tyranny and Oppression, and from all the fatal effects of Favouritism, Good Lord, &c.

We beseech thee, O Lord, that it may please thee that the Convocation of the Clergy may sit to rule and govern thy Church in the right way,
We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord!

That it may please thee to illuminate all Bishops, Priests and Deacons, that they may see the horrid sinfulness of seeking Translations, of holding Pluralities, of Non-residence, and of purchasing of livings, We beseech thee, &c.

That it may please thee to bless our Magistrates, and give them grace to put the laws in execution against all Engrossers and Forestallers of Provisions, We beseech thee, &c.

That it may please thee to give our Great Men a true love for their Country, that they may seek the Public Good, and not their own private interests, We beseech, &c.

That it may please thee to bless us with an able and upright Ministry, and to restore Unity, Peace and Concord, to this nation, We beseech, &c.

That it may please thee to bring into the right way all such as have erred, and that all those who are any ways entrusted by the people, may faithfully discharge their duty,
We beseech, &c.

That it may please thee to give the French a just notion of National Faith, to fulfil and preserve their Treaties with us, that we may long enjoy the blessings of peace,
We beseech, &c.

That it may please thee to give, and preserve from the hands of engrossing Harpies, to our use, the kindly fruits of the earth, so that in due time we may enjoy them,
We beseech, &c.

That it may please thee to bless the poor with Food, and the Rich with Grace, We beseech, &c.

That it may please thee to bless the King, and to give his Counsellors Wisdom, to restore and strengthen the Rights and Liberties of the People, and the just Prerogatives of the Crown, We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord!

We have received from good authority, the following account of Mr. Wildman's performances, at Earl Spencer's seat at Wimbledon, in Surry.

Being sent for to wait on his Lordship the 17th of September, to perform some of his curiosities in the Bee way, he attended accordingly, and several of the Nobility and persons of fashion were assembled; the Countess had provided three stocks of bees.

The first of his performances was with one hive of bees hanging to his hat, which he carried in one hand, and the hive which they came out of in the other hand; which was to convince the Earl and Countess that he could take honey and wax without destroying the bees. Then he returned into the room, and came out again with them hanging on his chin, with a very venerable beard. After shewing them to the company, he took them out upon the grass walk facing his Lordship's window, where a table and table cloth were immediately brought out, and he set the hive upon the table, and made the bees hive therein; then he made the bees come out again and swarm in the air, the Ladies and Nobility standing amongst them, and no person stung by them; he made them go on the table, and took them up by handfuls and tossed them up and down like so many peas; then he made them go into their hive at the word of command. Near five o'clock in the afternoon he exhibited again with the three swarms of bees, one on his head, one on his breast, and one on his arm, and then he went to his Lordship, who was too much indisposed to see the former experiments; the hives which the bees were taken from were carried by one of the servants. He went into a room again, and came out with them all over his head, face, and eyes, and was lead blind before his Lordship's window. He then begged of his Lordship that he would lend him one of his horses, which was granted, and was brought out in his body clothes. He then mounted the horse, with the bees all over his head and face, (except his eyes) and breast, and left arm, with a whip in his right hand, and the groom then led the horse backwards and forwards by his Lordship's window for some time, and then took the reins in his hand and rode round the house. He then dismounted, and made the bees march upon a table, and commanded them to retire to their hive, which they accordingly did, and gave great satisfaction to the Earl and Countess, and all the spectators.

A piece of Dutch inhumanity was performed on Sunday last on board one of their men of war in Plymouth harbour: A poor English sailor, who had been ship-wreck'd in Holland, being willing to return to his native country, procured a passage in a Dutch ship to England; but on the ship's arrival at the above port, they would not permit him to go on shore; upon which he petitioned the Admiral there, who ordered an officer to go and take him out. The officer went, but was refused the man, and questioned how he came to know the man was there; the officer then shewed the petition, which so exasperated the Dutch officer, that the Admiral's officer had no sooner left the ship, than they seized the poor man, and gave him 300 strokes with a five inch rope, which mangled his back and sides in such a manner, that large quantities of his flesh were swabb'd up by the decks, and his cries were heard near a mile; not a sailor on board any of the ships in Catwater could bear to stay upon deck. It is said that on Monday the Admiral sent another order for the man; but the officer was refused admittance into the ship; upon which, we hear, the Captain of the Burford man of war went on board, and upon examining and searching the ship, took out nine English sailors, men and boys, some of whom they had kidnapped here, by persuading them to go on board to see if they liked to sail with them, and then clapp'd them in irons. We hear the poor man cannot survive his punishment.——It is hoped these inhuman brutes will be made to answer for this unheard-of cruelty.

CARVER's Wharf, at Goſport:

BY the many Additions and Improvements lately made, is the moſt convenient in ENGLAND, for clearing Rice, &c. &c. The largeſt Ships that come from CAROLINA, can lay a-float at all Times of Tide; and as the Wharf is now covered, Rice can be ſhifted in any Weather. The Poſt going to and from London every Day, makes it very convenient, and Skins, Indico, or ſuch other Goods as are often ſent by Land, may be immediately conveyed by Waggons to London: Any Number of Porters may be had, in order to diſpatch Buſineſs; and many other Advantages attend the Proprietors of Ships and Cargoes too tedious to mention.

By his Excellency the Right Honourable Lord CHARLES-GREVILLE MONTAGU, Captain-General, Governor and Commander in Chief, in and over the ſaid Province, and Vice-Admiral of the ſame.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS in and by an Act of Parliament paſſed in the 6th Year of his Majeſty's Reign, intitled, An Act for altering the Oath of Abjuration and the Aſſurance, and for amending ſo much of an Act of the ſeventh Year of her late Majeſty Queen Anne, intitled, An Act for the Improvement of the Union of the two Kingdoms, as after the Time therein limited, requires the Delivery of certain Liſts and Copies therein mentioned, to Perſons indicted of high Treaſon, or miſpriſion of Treaſon, it is recited, That whereas by the Death of the Perſon who pretended to be Prince of Wales, during the Life of the late King James, and ſince his deceaſe, took upon him the Stile and Title of King of England, by the Name of James the Third, or of Scotland, by the Name of James the Eighth, or the Stile and Title of King of Great-Britain; it is become neceſſary to make ſome Alteration in the Oath of Abjuration and Aſſurance enacted to be taken in an Act of Parliament, paſſed in the firſt Year of the Reign of his Majeſty King George the Firſt, to be adminiſtred and taken in ſuch Manner and Form as is therein ſet down and preſcribed, it is therefore enacted, That all and every Perſon and Perſons who are enjoined and required to adminiſter, take and ſubſcribe the Oath of Abjuration and the Aſſurance in the ſaid above-mentioned Acts contained, ſhall reſpectively adminiſter, take and ſubſcribe, the Oath of Abjuration, and ſubſcribe the Aſſurance, according to the Form therein ſet down and preſcribed, in ſuch Courts, within ſuch Time limited, in ſuch Manner, and with due Obſervation of the ſame Requiſites, and with the Benefit of the ſame Savings, Proviſoes and Indemnities, as by the ſaid Acts above-mentioned, or by any other Acts, or any Part of them now ſubſiſting, are directed and enacted, and in Caſe of neglect or refuſal, he and they ſhall be liable to the ſame Penalties and Diſabilities as by the Laws and Statutes aforeſaid, are enacted.

GIVEN under my Hand, and the Great Seal of the ſaid Province, at Charles-Town, the tenth Day of December, Anno Domini, One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Sixty-ſix, and in the ſeventh Year of his Majeſty's Reign. C. G. MONTAGU.

By his Excellency's Command,

THOMAS SKOTTOWE, Sec'ry.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

The following is an Extract of a Letter from the COMMITTEE of CORRESPONDENCE to Charles Garth, Eſq; Agent for this Province in Great-Britain, dated October 20, 1766.

"THAT Letter concerning the STATUE, voted for the late Mr. PITT, (now Lord Chatham) was taken immediately into Conſideration, being the firſt Buſineſs entered upon at this Meeting. It was then determined by the Houſe, to have it fixed in the moſt publick Part of our Town, where two of the broadeſt and longeſt of our Streets, that run Eaſt and Weſt, and North and South, interſect each other at right Angles, one of which is ſixty, the other ſeventy Feet wide, and both as ſtraight as an Arrow: In the Croſs-Way of theſe two Streets, the Statue is propoſed to be placed, and will have our new Church, our new Market, the State-Houſe, and Armory, (all publick Buildings) at the ſeveral Corners of it.

"Mr. Wilton's Form deſigned for an open Place is thought rather too Stiff in its Attitude; however, we have no additional Directions to give on this Matter, farther than, that you will conſult the beſt Connoiſſeurs, and have it finiſhed in the moſt elegant Manner, excepting that too great Care cannot be taken, to have the Marble as hard, ſolid, and ſmoothly poliſhed as poſſible, becauſe of the many ſudden and violent Showers of Rain that happen here in the Summer Time, and thoſe frequently followed by ſuch piercing and intenſe Heat of the Sun, as would (without ſuch Precaution) quickly penetrate into any Cracks and leſs ſolid Parts, and Moulder them away, and thereby ſoon ſpoil the Beauty of the Statue. The other Matters in your ſeveral Letters will be anſwered with all Expedition; THIS the Houſe could not think of deferring a Moment, eſpecially at the preſent Juncture, when ſuch ungenerous and indefatigable Pains are taking, on your Side the Water, in Volumes of News-Papers and Pamphlets, to vilify and beſpatter Lord Chatham, and miſrepreſent his patriotick Actions and Intentions, in order, if poſſible, to deprive him of that Popularity he hath ſo juſtly acquired, and thereby leſſen his Influence in publick Matters; but theſe Attempts they think too violent and barefaced, as well as their Deſign too apparent, to impoſe upon any ſincere Lovers of their Country, and that free Conſtitution he has ſo often and nobly defended, and therefore cannot but be treated by them with the greateſt Contempt.

"For our Parts, we muſt heartily Congratulate the Nation in general, on this great Man's being placed once again ſo near his Majeſty, are ſincerely rejoiced at the Honours conferred upon him, and do not harbour any ungenerous Diſtruſt, or the moſt diſtant Doubt, that the preſent Lord Chatham will be leſs forward and zealous to ſerve his Country and its true Intereſts, to his utmoſt Power and Abilities, than was the late truly great Commoner, Mr. Pitt."

DOLLARS, at Thirty-two Shillings and Six-pence;—PISTOLES at Six Pounds;—GUINEAS at Seven Pounds Twelve Shillings and Six-pence;—HALF JOHANNES's at Thirteen Pounds, and other Pieces of Gold in Proportion, taken in Payment for fine old JAMAICA—WEST-INDIA,—and NORTHWARD RUM, by

THE Sale of the Eſtate of the Rev. Mr. ABRAHAM IMER, deceaſed, conſiſting of four Negroes, two Horſes, a riding Chair, ſome Furniture, and a Parcel of valuable Books, which was advertiſed for Sale in this Paper, through Miſtake, the 9th and 17th December, (at the Houſe of Mrs. Anne Imer, near the Rev. Mr. Wilton's, on Trott's Point) is put off to Friday the 9th of January, 1767. JOHN SCOTT, jun. Adminiſtrator.

CHARLES-TOWN, DECEMBER 23.

BY Capt. Henderſon, from Penſacola, we learn, That a moſt terrible Hurricane was felt there on the 22d of October, which had done much Damage as well on Shore as in the Harbour: That the Gale began at E. S. E, was extremely violent from about 10 o'Clock at Night till 6 in the Morning, when, the Wind ſhifting to the W. S. W. it abated: That only four Veſſels rode it out, not without receiving ſome Damage; and all the reſt were driven aſhore, viz. the Brig Rebecca, Robert Craig, Maſter, from this Port; a Brig from the Bay of Honduras, belonging to Jamaica, four of whoſe Hands and the Owner's Son were drowned; four Schoners and one Sloop, all of which were entirely loſt, except one of the Schooners (a Man of War's Tender) that was likely to be got off. That on the 2d inſt. his Majeſty's Ship the Ferret, commanded by Capt. Murray, came in there from a Cruize, entirely diſmaſted: And that five very rich Spaniſh Galleons, from La Vera Cruz, bound for Havanna and Old Spain, were drove on ſhore in the Bay of St. Bernard, W. and S. of Penſacola, ſome Time before the Hurricane of the 22d of October, to whoſe Relief a Veſſel had been ſent from New-Orleans, but was ſuppoſed to be loſt; whereupon the Adventure Man of War, commanded by Capt. Fitzherbert, ſailed from Penſacola the 12th of November, to give them all poſſible Aſſiſtance.

The Snow Indian Trader, Thomas McMin, Maſter, from Georgia for Jamaica, was caſt-away on the 10th of September, on a Reef of Rocks near the Grand Caicas (one of the Bahama Iſlands) where the Captain, Paſſengers and Crew happily got on ſhore, and were treated with great Humanity by ſome Wreckers, who afterwards carried them to Providence.

We hear that his Majeſty's Frigate the Eſcorte, commanded by Thomas Foley, Eſq; in going over the Bar of Providence, ſtruck, and received ſo much Damage, that it was doubted if ſhe could be made fit for the Sea again.

It is ſaid, that the Orders for the proper Government of Indians in the Southern Provinces, contained in the Royal Proclamation iſſued in 1763, has been communicated by the Earl of Shelburne, Secretary of State for the Southern Department, to all the Governors of thoſe Provinces, as alſo to the Superintendant of Indian Affairs, deſiring a due Obſervance to be paid thereto.
